Groupe Lacasse Introduces New LUTI Freestanding Screens

Groupe Lacasse is again introducing more physical distancing solutions to the workplace with the LUTI versatile collection of freestanding and stackable screens.

LUTI screens can surround, divide and even complete existing workspaces and waiting areas simply and efficiently. Whether they are all laminate, with a combination of laminate and/or clear or frosted acrylic stackables, LUTI is a cool solution for a temporary space reorganization or brand new workspaces.

LUTI will be part of the extensive Lacasse quick delivery program.
